Are you an English major with a Creative Writing Concentration?________

Please answer the following ON ATTACHED PAGES:

1) List all Creative Writing courses you have completed at Oberlin (please include terms and instructors’ names):

2) If you have completed one or more workshops, please answer the following:
   a) Have you taken any advanced projects yet (term, genre)?
   b) How many do you plan to take (term, genre)?

3) What college-level classes have you taken previously in literature and theater? Please include grades and instructors’ names. Please also list what courses you’re registered for in the spring.

4) If you’re applying for any other creative writing courses next semester, indicate which ones and your order of preference.

5) Why do you want to take this particular class now?

6) CRWR 201 is normally a prerequisite for this class, though I’m prepared to make exceptions. If you haven’t taken 201, are there any special circumstances you’d like me to take into consideration?

7) This class does require a solid working knowledge of drama, though not necessarily any previous experience in playwriting. If you haven’t indicated any coursework in dramatic literature or theater in #3, what other experience with drama have you had (e.g., theater experience, independent reading, etc.)?

8) Name two contemporary playwrights whose work you admire, and describe what interests you in their writing.

Please attach 10-20 pages of your best creative writing (any genre or combination of genres, but not an analytical paper). Don’t feel obligated to send drama: an excellent story will be more helpful than a mediocre play. Attach all materials to this form. We must receive your materials in the CRWR Program office by NOON the last day of fall semester classes. Submit applications early: do not count on priority mail, overnight mail, or FedEx. Do NOT submit by e-mail or fax.
