DEAR ALUMNI,

One of the privileges of my position as an alumnus of our wonderful college is our annual election of a trustee. It is a tradition of alumni elections for over 136 years. If all alumni-elect trustees serve a four-year term, the result is a turning over of board membership every four years. As you consider this year’s election, I encourage you to give careful consideration to this interest, and your vote. Please be guided by board members ’75, wrote, “It is important that the college’s alumni-elected trustee serves a four-year term. The time has come to annual election of a trustee. Oberlin’s trustees is 136 years old. Each candidate appears on the following pages. The candidates, listed alphabetically, are:

SUSAN N. LUBOW ’90

VOTING PROCEDURE

The self-mailing ballot is located on page 3 of this brochure. To vote, detach the flap from the rest of the brochure. Complete the information on the page, being sure to write your name or ID number legibly. (Your ID number serves as your signature.) Failing to do so will invalidate your ballot. In a way, you are voting in favor of placing by S.O.” in the box next to the name of the candidate of your choice. Ballots must be postmarked no later than May 26, 2014. No postage is necessary. If you are a member of the Oberlin Corporation, you may also vote online at http://www.oberlin.edu/alumni/ you may also vote online at http://www.oberlin.edu/alumni/oberlin_board_of_trustees/alumni_voting. On the Board of Trustees is interested in suggestions for non-alumni trustee members. Please forward your suggestions to the Trustee Search Committee of the Alumni Council, Oberlin College, 65 East College Street, Suite 4, Oberlin, Ohio 44074. There is no limit to the number of candidates you may suggest. In addition, Nominations Committee of the Board of Trustees is interested in suggestions for non-alumni trustee members. Please forward your suggestions to the Trustee Search Committee of the Alumni Council, Oberlin College, 65 East College Street, Suite 4, Oberlin, Ohio 44074. There is no limit to the number of candidates you may suggest. In addition, Nominations Committee of the Board of Trustees is interested in suggestions for non-alumni trustee members.

SUSAN LUBOW is a partner in the law firm of Port, Wright, Morris & Arthur LLP in Columbus, Ohio, practicing in the area of employee benefits. She assists both large and small employers in implementing and maintaining retirement and welfare/health plans for their employees. Lubow’s representation includes interaction with the IRS and the Department of Labor on behalf of employers and employees. Prior to becoming an attorney, she worked for the Ohio Legislative Service Commission as an aide to a state representative.

As a graduate of Oberlin’s double-degree program, Lubow continues to apply her vocal performance degree through various community activities. For five years, she served on the board of trustees of the Columbus Light Opera, serving as board president for two of those three years. Continuing to perform as a singer and soloist in local choirs and occasional musical productions, Lubow maintains her position as cantate conductor for the local chapter of Hymnland, an international Jewish high school choir.

Lubow was awarded a bachelor of music degree in voice from Oberlin in 2002 and a JD from Harvard Law School in 1998. She and her husband, Berry, live in Pickerington, Ohio, with their three children, Becca, Eli, and Emma.

What strengths would you bring to the Oberlin College Board of Trustees?

As a graduate of Oberlin’s double-degree program, Lubow continues to apply her vocal performance degree through various community activities. For five years, she served on the board of trustees of the Columbus Light Opera, serving as board president for two of those three years. Continuing to perform as a singer and soloist in local choirs and occasional musical productions, Lubow maintains her position as cantate conductor for the local chapter of Hymnland, an international Jewish high school choir.

Lubow was awarded a bachelor of music degree in voice from Oberlin in 2002 and a JD from Harvard Law School in 1998. She and her husband, Berry, live in Pickerington, Ohio, with their three children, Becca, Eli, and Emma.

What strengths would you bring to the Oberlin College Board of Trustees?

As a graduate of Oberlin’s double-degree program, Lubow continues to apply her vocal performance degree through various community activities. For five years, she served on the board of trustees of the Columbus Light Opera, serving as board president for two of those three years. Continuing to perform as a singer and soloist in local choirs and occasional musical productions, Lubow maintains her position as cantate conductor for the local chapter of Hymnland, an international Jewish high school choir.

Lubow was awarded a bachelor of music degree in voice from Oberlin in 2002 and a JD from Harvard Law School in 1998. She and her husband, Berry, live in Pickerington, Ohio, with their three children, Becca, Eli, and Emma.

What strengths would you bring to the Oberlin College Board of Trustees?

As a graduate of Oberlin’s double-degree program, Lubow continues to apply her vocal performance degree through various community activities. For five years, she served on the board of trustees of the Columbus Light Opera, serving as board president for two of those three years. Continuing to perform as a singer and soloist in local choirs and occasional musical productions, Lubow maintains her position as cantate conductor for the local chapter of Hymnland, an international Jewish high school choir.

Lubow was awarded a bachelor of music degree in voice from Oberlin in 2002 and a JD from Harvard Law School in 1998. She and her husband, Berry, live in Pickerington, Ohio, with their three children, Becca, Eli, and Emma.

What strengths would you bring to the Oberlin College Board of Trustees?

As a graduate of Oberlin’s double-degree program, Lubow continues to apply her vocal performance degree through various community activities. For five years, she served on the board of trustees of the Columbus Light Opera, serving as board president for two of those three years. Continuing to perform as a singer and soloist in local choirs and occasional musical productions, Lubow maintains her position as cantate conductor for the local chapter of Hymnland, an international Jewish high school choir.

Lubow was awarded a bachelor of music degree in voice from Oberlin in 2002 and a JD from Harvard Law School in 1998. She and her husband, Berry, live in Pickerington, Ohio, with their three children, Becca, Eli, and Emma.

What strengths would you bring to the Oberlin College Board of Trustees?

As a graduate of Oberlin’s double-degree program, Lubow continues to apply her vocal performance degree through various community activities. For five years, she served on the board of trustees of the Columbus Light Opera, serving as board president for two of those three years. Continuing to perform as a singer and soloist in local choirs and occasional musical productions, Lubow maintains her position as cantate conductor for the local chapter of Hymnland, an international Jewish high school choir.

Lubow was awarded a bachelor of music degree in voice from Oberlin in 2002 and a JD from Harvard Law School in 1998. She and her husband, Berry, live in Pickerington, Ohio, with their three children, Becca, Eli, and Emma.

What strengths would you bring to the Oberlin College Board of Trustees?

As a graduate of Oberlin’s double-degree program, Lubow continues to apply her vocal performance degree through various community activities. For five years, she served on the board of trustees of the Columbus Light Opera, serving as board president for two of those three years. Continuing to perform as a singer and soloist in local choirs and occasional musical productions, Lubow maintains her position as cantate conductor for the local chapter of Hymnland, an international Jewish high school choir.

Lubow was awarded a bachelor of music degree in voice from Oberlin in 2002 and a JD from Harvard Law School in 1998. She and her husband, Berry, live in Pickerington, Ohio, with their three children, Becca, Eli, and Emma.

What strengths would you bring to the Oberlin College Board of Trustees?

As a graduate of Oberlin’s double-degree program, Lubow continues to apply her vocal performance degree through various community activities. For five years, she served on the board of trustees of the Columbus Light Opera, serving as board president for two of those three years. Continuing to perform as a singer and soloist in local choirs and occasional musical productions, Lubow maintains her position as cantate conductor for the local chapter of Hymnland, an international Jewish high school choir.

Lubow was awarded a bachelor of music degree in voice from Oberlin in 2002 and a JD from Harvard Law School in 1998. She and her husband, Berry, live in Pickerington, Ohio, with their three children, Becca, Eli, and Emma.

What strengths would you bring to the Oberlin College Board of Trustees?

As a graduate of Oberlin’s double-degree program, Lubow continues to apply her vocal performance degree through various community activities. For five years, she served on the board of trustees of the Columbus Light Opera, serving as board president for two of those three years. Continuing to perform as a singer and soloist in local choirs and occasional musical productions, Lubow maintains her position as cantate conductor for the local chapter of Hymnland, an international Jewish high school choir.

Lubow was awarded a bachelor of music degree in voice from Oberlin in 2002 and a JD from Harvard Law School in 1998. She and her husband, Berry, live in Pickerington, Ohio, with their three children, Becca, Eli, and Emma.

What strengths would you bring to the Oberlin College Board of Trustees?

As a graduate of Oberlin’s double-degree program, Lubow continues to apply her vocal performance degree through various community activities. For five years, she served on the board of trustees of the Columbus Light Opera, serving as board president for two of those three years. Continuing to perform as a singer and soloist in local choirs and occasional musical productions, Lubow maintains her position as cantate conductor for the local chapter of Hymnland, an international Jewish high school choir.

Lubow was awarded a bachelor of music degree in voice from Oberlin in 2002 and a JD from Harvard Law School in 1998. She and her husband, Berry, live in Pickerington, Ohio, with their three children, Becca, Eli, and Emma.

What strengths would you bring to the Oberlin College Board of Trustees?

As a graduate of Oberlin’s double-degree program, Lubow continues to apply her vocal performance degree through various community activities. For five years, she served on the board of trustees of the Columbus Light Opera, serving as board president for two of those three years. Continuing to perform as a singer and soloist in local choirs and occasional musical productions, Lubow maintains her position as cantate conductor for the local chapter of Hymnland, an international Jewish high school choir.

Lubow was awarded a bachelor of music degree in voice from Oberlin in 2002 and a JD from Harvard Law School in 1998. She and her husband, Berry, live in Pickerington, Ohio, with their three children, Becca, Eli, and Emma.

What strengths would you bring to the Oberlin College Board of Trustees?

As a graduate of Oberlin’s double-degree program, Lubow continues to apply her vocal performance degree through various community activities. For five years, she served on the board of trustees of the Columbus Light Opera, serving as board president for two of those three years. Continuing to perform as a singer and soloist in local choirs and occasional musical productions, Lubow maintains her position as cantate conductor for the local chapter of Hymnland, an international Jewish high school choir.

Lubow was awarded a bachelor of music degree in voice from Oberlin in 2002 and a JD from Harvard Law School in 1998. She and her husband, Berry, live in Pickerington, Ohio, with their three children, Becca, Eli, and Emma.