As part of the 2014-2015 federal student aid application process, the Department of Education requires that all applicants reporting child support paid must provide a statement signed by the applicant, spouse, or parent who paid child support certifying:
(a) The amount of child support paid.
(b) The name of the person to whom child support was paid.
(c) The name of the children for whom child support was paid.

Oberlin College reserves the right to request additional documentation if the information provided below is conflicting or incomplete. Additional documentation requested may include, but is not limited to, a copy of the separation agreement or divorce decree that shows the amount of child support to be provided, a statement from the individual receiving the child support showing the amount provided, or copies of the child support checks or money order receipts.
