DIONYSUS CONCERT PROMOTER

Schedule/Basic Info:
8 hours per week. Monday - Sunday (hours depend on the numbers of shows book - typical show is an 8 - 10 hour commitment). This position is supervised by the Assistant Director of Student Activities.
Wage: $8.10/hour

Potential Projects/Duties:
- Programming and Scheduling: Program the Dionysus Club using funds allocated through the SFC budget. Solicit artists which will serve a varying array of our student population and provide diverse programming for the wider campus community. Attend weekly programming meetings.
- Contracting: Negotiate and write contracts under the supervision of the Assistant Director.
- Show Promotion: Promote and advertise contracted shows in a variety of locations and media.
- Hosting: Serve as the on-campus host and College representation for all contracted shows in the Dionysus Club.
- Budgeting: Write and maintain the Student Union Program Committee budget.

Requirements:
Please possess the ability to explain and enforce building and college policies, plus city and state regulations. This position requires the ability to supervise other student staff and to effectively collaborate with Concert Sound, performers, and a myriad of agents and promoters. Applicants must be able to work late night hours and in environments of extended exposure to loud music. The applicant must possess good problem solving abilities. Additionally, the applicant must be able to attend a weekly programming meeting for approximately 1 hour and must be available to return to campus on Monday, August 24, to begin training the next day.

Qualifications:
Experience as a concert promoter or activity planner is highly desired. A genuine interest in learning the concert business from the ground up is appreciated.