Worksheet for French Majors
10 courses, minimum

Gateway Course (French 301 or 309 or 321)
1. ________________________________ (In residence)

300-Level Courses (at Oberlin or through Study Away)
2. ________________________________ (Prerequisite for 400-level)
3. ________________________________ (Prerequisite for 400-level)

400-level Courses (at Oberlin or, in some cases, through Study Away)
4. ________________________________ (In residence)
5. ________________________________
6. ________________________________

Electives (Combination of Full or Half Courses)
a) 300- or 400-level courses offered in the French Department
b) Courses taught at Oberlin outside of the French Department or through Study Away dedicated entirely to some aspect of the Francophone World
c) Half course credit for courses taught at Oberlin outside of the French Department, with 30% or more of the syllabus devoted to some aspect of the Francophone world (French Department Chair’s approval required)
d) Half course credit for any Languages across the Curriculum discussion section in French
7. ________________________________
8. ________________________________
9. ________________________________
10. ________________________________

You must be able to answer “yes” to the following questions to complete the major.

Were at least 5 of your 10 major courses taken at Oberlin? __________

Were at least 7 of your 10 major courses taught in French? __________

Did you get the French Department Chair’s approval for any Partial Major Credit (courses outside of French that dedicated 30% of the syllabus to the Francophone world)? __________