Are you an English major with a Creative Writing Minor? ________

If you are applying for other Creative Writing classes, list them here in order of preference, including this one:

1) This course will focus on the art, craft and techniques of literary translation through the translation of literary texts. Briefly describe any experience you have reading poetry, reading literature in translation and/or reading literature in original languages other than English.

2) List other Creative Writing courses and/or Comparative Literature courses you have taken at Oberlin or elsewhere; please include course names, semesters and instructors’ names (and institution name if not taken at Oberlin).

3) Please list, in order of preference, which other Creative Writing courses you are applying for this semester. If preference is not indicated, we will assume you have none.

4) We recommend at least three semesters of standard language study (or two semesters of accelerated study) or the equivalent. Briefly describe your experience with languages. Please include courses you have taken in Language departments here at Oberlin or at other institutions, indicating course title, semester and instructor. Please indicate proficiency level with each language. It is recommended that you have a resource in your chosen language(s) (professor, family member, friend).

Please submit 6-10 pages of writing (including poetry if you have some). Additional (numbered) pages should be used for your answers and for your writing samples. Attach all materials to this form. We must receive your materials by NOON the last day of semester classes. Submit applications early: Do not count on priority mail, overnight mail, or FedEx, and do NOT submit by e-mail or fax.
