VISIT ITINERARY: We want your visit to be flexible, but we have also built in some structure to offer Admissions activities that we hope will give you a balanced view of academics and student life at Oberlin. You will have the opportunity to arrange class visits and other meetings in advance. You may then choose to participate in activities listed on the itinerary below as they fit into your schedule. Individual interview appointments will be scheduled for students interested in the College of Arts & Sciences and each student will be notified of his or her interview appointment time prior to the visit. Before you visit: Once you have registered, you will receive information via email that will provide you with your individual interview appointment time as well as several web links to help you plan your time in Oberlin. This information will include links to the class schedule, faculty directory, and the events calendar. We will provide you with a visit itinerary when you arrive, but you will also have some flexibility to arrange activities that are of interest to you.

Please note that interviews will be scheduled for all students who express interest in the College of Arts and Sciences. If you have already completed an interview, you will not receive an interview appointment during this visit. For students solely interested in the Conservatory of Music, you will not complete an interview during this visit. The Conservatory of Music offers auditions that begin in December. For more information about the audition process, please contact the Conservatory Admissions Office directly at (440) 775-8413.

What to bring: PERSONAL IDENTIFICATION, sleeping bag, pillow, towel, personal toiletries, coat or jacket (for unpredictable weather), spending money, etc. Travel as light as possible and please make yourself aware of airline baggage restrictions in advance, especially for carrying on items such as musical instruments, shaving kits, liquid toiletries, etc. Some airlines may charge a fee for bags that are checked rather than carried on the flight with you. Please be prepared to pay any additional fees for both your departing flight and the return flight if you decide to check your baggage.

More information about travel restrictions is available on the following websites:

Transportation Safety Administration: www.tsa.gov
Southwest Airlines: www.southwestairlines.com
United Airlines: www.united.com

Overnight accommodations: During this visit, you will be hosted by a current Oberlin student who lives in campus residence hall. Please be sure to bring a sleeping bag, pillow, and any other overnight items that you will need to make your stay as comfortable as possible. You will be sleeping on the floor of a dorm room. Most students do not have extra sleeping bags, pillows, towels, etc. to offer you, so please plan accordingly. If you have made arrangements to stay with someone you know, please be sure to check with that person in advance to determine what items you may need to bring for your overnight stay.

At the airport: An Oberlin representative will meet you at the airport prior to departure as well as in Cleveland at the airport when you arrive. Please remember to bring proper identification with you to the airport for check-in. Depending on the airline selected for your trip, you will receive either a paper airline ticket from the Oberlin representative at the airport or you will be assisted on sight to print an e-ticket. If you receive a paper ticket, you must secure the return portion of the ticket with your belongings so that you will be able to board the return flight in Cleveland at the end of your visit. For flights with e-tickets, you are not able to print e-tickets in advance due to group travel restrictions.

Please note that group travel tickets are non-refundable and non-transferable, so if you decide to cancel your visit after our cancellation deadline, we are not able to provide the unused ticket to you to use for future travel.

When you arrive on campus: You will receive a Visitor Card that will serve as your temporary I.D., meal card, and access card for the residence hall in which you will be staying. Please keep this card with you at all times during your visit. Admissions staff will be available to assist you during your visit during regular office hours. You will be able to reach an Overnight Host Coordinator by contacting the Office of Safety and Security at (440) 775-8444 after office hours if you should need further assistance. Emergency contact information is printed on the Visitor Card.

If you have any questions prior to your visit, please contact the Campus Visit Office at 1-800-622-6243 or via email at: Campus.Visit@oberlin.edu
