VILLAGE LIFE®

IN

DORDOGNE

October 13 to 21, 2016
Dear Oberlin Travelers:

Join this small group of travelers and Oberlin Professor Charles McGuire ’92 for a unique opportunity to experience the authentic character of France’s historic villages in the picturesque southwestern département of Dordogne. Immerse yourself in the rich local culture and rhythms of daily life in this charming region, and explore the history of early humans who painted their stories on its cave walls, the largest concentration of prehistoric art in the world.

Experience the heart of Dordogne, a hidden treasure where all of France’s provincial delights have been distilled into one of Europe’s most beautiful and intact medieval villages, Sarlat-la-Canéda. Our carefully designed itinerary and expert-guided excursions explore five impressive UNESCO World Heritage sites: the dramatic cliffside monastic village of Rocamadour, the important archaeological sites of L’Abri du Cap-Blanc, Rouffignac Cave and Les-Eyzies-de-Tayac, and the prehistoric troglodyte village of La Madeleine. Visit the incredible Lascaux II with specially arranged prehistory expert Christine Desdemaines-Hugon to appreciate one of humankind’s earliest art creations in the form of cave paintings. Exclusively arranged, enriching presentations and the Village Forum® provide personal perspectives on daily life in the villages of Dordogne.

Your “home” in the village will be the family-owned PLAZA MADELEINE HOTEL, a restored 19th-century townhouse ideally located in medieval Sarlat-la-Canéda. This delightful hôtel de charme features a provincial ambiance with modern accommodations and amenities, and is known for the warm hospitality of its staff. In addition to the included meals in the hotel, enjoy regional specialties during traditional three-course dinners in specially selected French bistros nestled in the quaint village of Sarlat.

Village Life® in Dordogne is truly a one-of-a-kind French experience, a great value and you unpack only once! It is an exceedingly popular program, so I encourage you to book now while space and Early Booking Savings are available.

À bientôt!

Warm regards,

M. Danielle Young

Charles Edward McGuire ’92 is a professor of musicology at Oberlin. He teaches MHST 101, Romantic music history, film music, Beethoven and Mozart’s operas. His published scholarship includes a book on Elgar’s oratorios and a book on the intersection of music in Victorian moral philanthropic societies, such as temperance, missionary work and women’s suffrage as well as numerous articles on Elgar, Vaughan Williams and the Italian prima donna Angelica Catalani. He has also just released The Great Works of Sacred Music with The Great Courses. He was a double-degree student at Oberlin, and earned his Ph.D. at Harvard. Since coming to Oberlin in 2001, Charles has spent several weeks each year in France or the United Kingdom, visiting churches, castles and vineyards. In his spare time, he enjoys wine tasting, collecting French travel narratives and spending time with his wife, Kira McGirr ’06, and their two sons.

Sarlat-la-Canéda

Author Henry Miller called Sarlat “the Frenchman’s paradise.”

Your charming “village home” is in the pre-French Revolutionary capital of Périgord Noir, a lushly forested corner of the Aquitaine region, ideally located between the Dordogne and Vézère Rivers. It is a bon vivant’s dream, renowned for truffles, wild mushrooms, strawberries, walnuts and duck, and close enough to Bordeaux to procure the finest wines directly from vintners’ cellars.

Sarlat has one of the greatest concentrations of medieval, Renaissance and 17th-century façades in Europe. Step back in time as you meander through narrow cobblestone streets illuminated by gas lamps and lined with traditional Renaissance-style stone houses crowned with pepperpot chimneys. The heart of Sarlat is the Place de la Liberté, where every Wednesday and Saturday one of France’s most storied markets is held, a tradition dating from the Middle Ages.

Cultural Enrichment: During the exclusive Village Forum®, Dordognais will discuss contemporary life in Dordogne.

Cultural Enrichment: Attend the private, specially arranged presentation by a local expert on preserving medieval architecture in Sarlat.

Part of the UNESCO World Heritage St. James’ Way pilgrimage route, Rocamadour has for centuries beckoned travelers to its lofty summit above a tributary of the Dordogne River.
CULTURAL ENRICHMENT: Enjoy a private, traditional, 19th-century French folk music and dance performance.

CULTURAL ENRICHMENT: Sample regional cheese and wine in a specialty épicerie.

CULTURAL ENRICHMENT: Savor a specially arranged dinner in two authentic French bistros in Sarlat.

Rocamadour/Souillac
Rocamadour, a fortified 13th-century village and UNESCO World Heritage site, has one of the most dramatic settings of any village in the world, built on the face of a sheer 400-foot cliff. During the Middle Ages, pilgrims flocked here from across Europe to perform penance by ascending over 200 steps of the Grand Stairway on their knees to pay homage to the Virgin Mary and seek miracles from St. Amadour by visiting his crypt. Embedded in the cliff above the doorway to the Chapelle de Notre Dame is a sword said to be that of the heroic knight Roland.

Nearby, visit the quaint town of Souillac and its 12th-century Church of Sainte-Marie, a treasury of Romanesque statuary and carvings depicting biblical and legendary scenes.

CULTURAL ENRICHMENT: Savor a lunch of regional specialties in a village restaurant.

Les Eyzies-de-Tayac
Les Eyzies is France’s capital of prehistoric humanity, where unprecedented fossils of Cro-Magnon man have been discovered. Approximately 35,000 years old, these fossils are some of the earliest known evidence of modern humans in Europe. The National Museum of Prehistory, housed in a 13th-century castle, gives context to the area’s cave paintings, fossils and early tools.

CULTURAL ENRICHMENTS: Guided tour of the National Museum of Prehistory and excursion to see L’Abri du Cap-Blanc’s prehistoric cave friezes both led by prehistory expert Christine Desdemaines-Hugon.

Jardins d’Eyrignac
Designated a national monument by the French government, Eyrignac Manor has been the continuous family residence of 22 generations for more than 500 years. On this 17th-century estate, located just outside of Sarlat, view what many consider the finest jardins (gardens) in all of France. Originally of an 18th-century Italian design, the landscape was converted a century later to an English-style, sculpted, coniferous garden and has been immaculately maintained and enhanced throughout the years.

Villages of the Périgord Noir
Carved beneath a cliff overlooking the picturesque Vézère River, the prehistoric troglodyte village and UNESCO World Heritage site of La Madeleine offers unique insight into the Magdalenian culture, which prevailed in southern Europe for over 60 centuries from 15,000 to 9000 B.C. This ancient settlement of approximately 20 dwellings once accommodated 100 residents at a time.

Petit Saint-Amand-de-Coly is one of the most picturesque villages in Dordogne, its cobblestone lanes dominated by the fortified 13th-century Abbey Church, an unusual fusion of Romanesque and Gothic styles. Traces of the Hundred Years’ War remain in the ramparts and towers of the fortress-like church and the nearby remnants of its abbey.

Château de Beynac
Perched 500 feet above the Dordogne River and commanding a medieval village of golden stone houses tucked into the steep hillside is the fortified Château (castle) de Beynac, a masterpiece of medieval military engineering that was once a stronghold of Richard the Lionheart. Traverse the castle’s elaborate series of surrounding stone walls, parapet walks, watchtowers and passageways to an impressive interior decorated with a magnificent 17th-century staircase and delicate 15th-century frescoes, including one of the Last Supper and a Pietà.

CULTURAL ENRICHMENT: Enjoy a private cruise on the tranquil Dordogne River aboard a traditional 19th-century gabare, followed by a lunch of Périgord specialties in a local restaurant overlooking the river.

Domme
Among the “most beautiful villages” of France, Domme is an authentic medieval bastide, or fortified village, where entrance today is still gained through its original military ramparts, and graffiti etched by the Knights Templar in the 14th century is still distinguishable on the inner village walls. The beauty of the 13th- and 14th-century architecture of Domme is surpassed only by its exceptional views overlooking the Dordogne River.

Splendors of Bordeaux
St-Émilion and Médoc
Pre-Program Option
Long distinguished as the wine capital of the world, France’s verdant Bordeaux region has been producing, fermenting and bottling the grape since the eighth century. Tucked away in the heart of the rolling French countryside and endless vineyards, visit the charming and legendary village of St-Émilion, a UNESCO World Heritage site, famous for the Merlot grape grown here that produces rich, full-bodied red wines. Visit the impressive medieval monuments of St-Émilion, including the Église Monolithe, one of the largest underground churches in Europe. Just north of Bordeaux in the Médoc region, experience the grand cru classé, Bordeaux’s distinguished wine classification, at a château and enjoy a tasting of their exquisite wines. Accommodations are for two nights in the deluxe HÔTEL BURDIGALA, located in the heart of Bordeaux. The Pre-Program Option is available at additional cost. Details will be provided with your reservation confirmation.

St-Émilion, known for its exceptional viticulture, is located on the St. James Way pilgrimage route.

Prehistoric Art

Dordogne has the greatest concentration of prehistoric sites anywhere in the world. The region’s limestone caves and rocky overhangs provided Ice Age man with not only shelter, but also a vast canvas for his extraordinary rock paintings. In the two most well-known caves, Lascaux and Rouffignac, both UNESCO World Heritage sites, extinct aurochs, wild stallions and antelopes, painted between approximately 25,000 and 17,000 years ago, still prance, preen and gallop before your eyes. The original Lascaux cave has been closed to the public since 1963 for preservation purposes; Lascaux II, an exact and stunning replica, has been created to enable the public to view these fascinating cave paintings. In fact, it gives a truer representation of the exuberant colors that have faded in Lascaux itself.

The authentic Rouffignac Cave offers up-close views of the deft drawings of extinct animals covering the five-mile labyrinth of cavern walls, including the famous and impressive frieze of two bison about to engage each other in battle.

Near the village of Les Eyzies, visit the original Cro-Magnon rock shelter and UNESCO World Heritage site of L’Abri du Cap-Blanc, showcasing the rare, life-size frieze of horses and bison sculpted in limestone. A guided tour of the exhibits at the National Museum of Prehistory in Les Eyzies helps put this vast network of prehistoric art into context.

Marvel at the exquisite artistry and ingenuity of prehistoric painters in Lascaux II.

See well-preserved cliff dwellings along the Dordogne River where prehistoric troglodyte villages once flourished.
Visit the Château de Beynac, which soars dramatically above the Dordogne River Valley. Once a stronghold of Richard the Lionheart, it remained a highly prized strategic outpost for centuries.
